PLENTY OF SNOW

Reports Received From Interior of State Are That Mountains Have Much of the "Beautiful."

Reports received in the city yesterday were to the effect that the mountains in the interior of the state are well supplied with snow. While Wheeling and vicinity was visited by the snow flurries and storms, it is said that a much greater amount was deposited in the woods and hills farther back in the state, and it is generally felt that if rain follows that a high river will be inevitable.

Weather reports received last night, however, do not tend to cause any fear, as clear and slightly more moderate weather only is predicted. The cold spell will be welcomed by persons residing in the high water districts, and all will feel better satisfied if rain does not follow.

LA BELLE RUMOR

IS UNFOUNDED

PRESIDENT CRAWFORD DENIES REPORT OF A MERGER.

Report Received From New York Yesterday of Contemplated Action Causes Stir locally.

Emphatic denial was made by the officers and directors of the LaBelle Iron works of the report from New York to the effect that the LaBelle company is contemplating the increasing of its capital from $20,000,000 to $65,000,000 so it could take over the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company and the McKeesport Tin Plate company.

President William Crawford of the LaBelle stated last evening to the Intelligencer that a merger of the companies named has never been considered by the directors and that, furthermore, they have not contemplated another increase of capital stock. He added that the only proposition considered recently was the offer made by certain capitalists to purchase the holdings of the company, but that the directors acted unfavorably on the offer and the matter has been dropped, as was stated in the Intelligencer at that time.

The report of the alleged merger by the LaBelle was received in this city yesterday afternoon by the A. E. Masten company, brokers, over a private wire from New York. While the report lacked official confirmation, much credence was placed in it at the time.

Her Just Cause.

"Never again will I marry a dreamer!" said the Reno visitor, after securing her final decree.

"You might do worse, my dear," remarked the Reno visitor. "I married a snorer."—Judge.
